A BIG STRIKE IN WINSTON.

Three Hundred Factory Hands Go Out in a Body.

STRUCK AGAINST A WAGE CUT.

All Twin-City Ministers Made it Warm For The Mormon Elders in Yesterday's Sermons.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Jan. 24—Many pastors of this city yesterday uttered scathing words from their pulpits against Mormonism and the two elders here. Rev. J. W. Frank had previously announced this as his subject for the morning service and the elders went to hear him. After preaching he gave the elders the privilege to announce their meetings. Rev. H. A. Brown at the Baptist church preached strictly a doctrinal sermon and while he did not mention the name, Mormonism, yet there was a strong undercurrent in his sermon which was no doubt intended as a severe arraignment of Mormon doctrine. Other pastors spoke equally strong words against the invasion of these two elders, who in a quiet, unassuming way have stirred up such a hornet's nest.

The chamber of commerce will hold a call meeting tomorrow night to confer with Col. P. H. Lybrook about the movement to secure a government building. Congressman Linney is reported as anxious to secure all data and home support possible.

The first strike in years here occurred this morning. Three hundred colored employees at Brown & Williamson's tobacco factory came out in a body. Saturday evening when they were to be paid off for the past two weeks, they were offered their wages with a big reduction from the amount they had been getting. They refused to accept the reduction and postponed definite action until this morning when after several conferences among themselves they decided to strike. The factory is now closed and there is no immediate prospect of re-opening. It is believed however the matter will be satisfactorily adjusted.

WHEN SPRING TIME IS HERE.

The Winter of the Carpenter's Discontent Will be Over.

Men here in town who by reason of their line of business are in a position to know say that when the Spring season opens up there will be a great revival of building and work for carpenters and masons will be plentiful. The demand for comfortable homes is very large here, much larger than the supply, and there will be some attempt to supply it. The demand for houses is largely for houses of eight to a dozen rooms, houses modern in construction and arrangement. A number of houses of that class would find takers in a day. It is odd, too, that the town should not have more flats and apartment houses.

Nothing would pay better here than an apartment house conveniently located and properly built. Such a house of fifty rooms could be filled in few weeks. Of course the proposed extension of the sewerage system is having much to do with the promised revival in building. Such extension will mean the expenditure of thousands of dollars in homes in the next twelve months.

Just watch Greensboro when spring comes. There will be other music beside that of the birds.

Services Closed.

The week of worship at the First Presbyterian church closed with last night's services. The results of the meeting were most gratifying to the church in the professions of faith and renewed spiritual zeal in the church body. The large audiences that have heard Rev. A. R. Shaw, of Henderson, who has been conducting the meetings, have been greatly pleased with his earnest eloquence, force and sincerity as a preacher.

His sermon last night on "Excuses" was especially fine and some of the speaker's climaxes were genuinely dramatic. He held his audience spellbound for minutes together.

A Credit to Our Town.

There is an institution in Greensboro that is a credit to our town in its business management and the growth of its deposits, and this is the People's Five-Cent Savings Bank. Their deposits have nearly doubled in the last twelve months and are steadily growing.

The Telegram congratulates this excellent institution on its splendid showing.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Jan. 24, '98.

Chief Bennett arrived last night from Charlotte with the three negroes, Will Jones, Tom Allen and Jery Willoghby, who broke into Sapp's racket store.

Will Jones, of Salisbury, made a confession, and implicated Carl Holt and Alex Hoskins, who were arrested here yesterday afternoon by officer Burns. They were brought before Mayor Bradshaw this morning and had a preliminary hearing and were bound over to court. They were unable to give bond and were taken to Greensboro this morning.

A fight occurred here yesterday afternoon between two negroes named Clayton and Ad Alford over a pair of gloves, Clayton struck Alford on the head with a rock inflicting a deep gash.

W. E. Johns, Jr., left this morning for Mt. Airy.

Miss Marie Louise Dicks, of Randleman, passed here enroute to Raleigh.

Will Whicker, who was sick only a few days with pneumonia, died on Saturday night. He leaves a wife and one child. He was buried here yesterday.

Misses Bell and Minnie Grimes, of Thomasville, were in the city yesterday.

W. J. Armfield, of Asheboro, spent Sunday at his home here.

Miss Henryanna Hackney spent Sunday at her home at Guilford College.

A. V. Sapp went to Charlotte, yesterday morning to identify his stolen property.

A special train was made up here yesterday to take Dr. Bahnson, of Salem, and Drs. Stanton and Cox, of this place, to Asheboro to attend those who were injured in the wreck on the Aberdeen & Asheboro railroad late Saturday afternoon. Engineer Brown's leg was amputated. The engine had cut loose from the cars and the brakes failed to hold them. The cars ran into the engine smashing the tender and several of the cars, injuring the fireman and pinning the engineer to the boiler with the above result. It was sometime before he was liberated.

CURED THEIR ILLS.

"The Divine Healer" at St. Matthews Colored Church.

At St. Matthews M. E. church, colored, last night, Rev. E. M. Collett, "the Divine Healer," preached to a large congregation from a part of the 9th chapter of Luke. He claimed that through God he had made the blind to see and consumptives to leave their beds and walk within five minutes after he had prayed with them.

After the sermon he called upon the lame and sick who were present to come forward and God would have him heal them. Four persons responded. He prayed for them with his hands upon their heads, and in a few minutes they arose and testified that their pains were gone.

Some of them went to their seats shouting. This man is a wonder among the colored people and much interest is manifested and great excitement prevails.

DOUGLAS OUT OF THE RACE

It Now Lies Between Lusk and Jim Boyd

WITH EWART AS A STRONG THIRD

The Appointment of Dick's Successor is Expected This Week, but May be Deferred Till Later.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The all important question that disturbs the minds of the North Carolina politicians here at the present is, who will succeed Judge Dick. Of the several men spoken of as probabilities, the most prominent are Lusk, Boyd and Ewart. However, there are some who believe that Senator Pritchard and Representative Pearson have indorsed Mr. Lusk. Col. Boyd, as far as Washington goes, is the most popular man named. But Col. Boyd is very much needed in his present place. It is learned from a good source that he is highly respected by the administration in general and is giving perfect satisfaction in the department of justice. Therefore, he is more than likely to be retained there.

Prominent republicans also say that Col. Boyd is too young and active in politics to be retired in that way. If one may judge by what is heard in Washington in republican circles, Mr. Boyd is by no means a politician of nothing more than state reputation, but he is a man of wide national reputation.

Judge Douglas seems to be out of the race entirely. It is between Lusk and Boyd, with Ewart as a strong third.

The appointment is expected this week, though it may not be made for some time to come yet.

Hunting the Vestibule.

Saturday night, a colored man named Charlie Brown, got full, very full, and with two pistols in his pockets started out to paint the town. Two policemen got on his track, but lost the trail. About eight o'clock he rushed into a place down the street where a young white man was trying to buy a second hand shirt, and said he was "hunting the through vestibule," at the same time landing a blow on the young man's breast which staggered him.

The negro ran, and escaped into the street. About this time Policeman Jordan heard him and made for him. Brown was saying:

"I'll paint 'er, I'll paint 'er red, or any old color."

"All right," said Mr. Jordan, "You may paint the jail first," and he closed in on him. It then occurred to the darkey that he had no paint and his fun amounted to nothing. When arrested he had lost or disposed of his pistols, as they were not found upon him.

Wang's Owners Still the Same.

There has been a very general but mistaken impression that Wang, the merry Siamese opera by Goodwin and Morse, has passed into other hands. As a matter of fact the work, which has been the greatest popular and financial success known in years, and which next month goes out for its third season, has not been sold. It is now the valuable property of identically the same owners as on the night of its first production two years ago. The contrary belief is probably due to the fact that during the first two seasons the opera's owners allowed it to be produced on a royalty, while during the coming season it will be under their own exclusive management.

They have recognized the fact that Wang has great intrinsic merits of its own, that its success was never for an instant dependent upon one individual and that altogether, the opera was too valuable a piece of property to permit to be produced on a royalty. These are the sole facts in connection with the many published rumors. It is a recognized fact among managers that the opera goes out this season with more money behind it and more money lavished upon its production than ever before.

Prices of admission—50c. for children; 75c. general admission and $1 for reserved seats. Seats on sale at Gardner's drug store.

THE SITUATION IN THE EAST.

England's declaration that "even at the cost of war" China shall be kept open to English commerce, has reduced the eastern crisis to the very simple elements of either England or Russia yielding or of war.

Russia has all along been anxious to secure Port Arthur as a wintering place and open port for her fleets, ostensibly; in reality as a terminus for her trans-Siberian railway and as means of promoting her influence and securing predominance at Pekin.

China has been seeking a loan with which to pay the last enstalment of the war indemnity due Japan. England proposed to make the loan provided China would make a treaty port of Talienwan, lying just north of Port Arthur. Talienwan would command Port Arthur and the railroad leading to it as a stragetic point.

Russia is said to have issued an ultimatum forbidding China to accept the loan on such conditions and threatening reprisals in case she does accept. Therefore Russia must give up hopes of Port Arthur, England must give up Talienwan or war must ensue. That is the status of affairs at present.

In case of war it is worth while noting that England's Asiatic squadron is more than a match for the combined French and Russian squadrons. If Germany co-operates with them and Japan with England, which latter is said to be assured, England and Japan would be vastly more powerful than their opponents at sea while Japan could throw a land force into China that could easily sweep away all opposition.

England's foreign policy is far from palatable but it is preferable to that of Russia. England has carried a love of constitutional liberty with her everywhere and has generally bettered the condition of those whom she conquers. Russia as an evangel of autocracy and tyranny is an embodied and powerful menace. Russia in possession of China would be the mistress of the world.

An Iadiana man has bottled sunshine and now a St. Louis inventor has found a way to employ currents of electricity that have been turned loose in the earth. It only remains for some genius to devise a method of corking the eloquence of the anti-civil service congressman with all its bouquet fresh upon it and science may doze upon its evergreens.

The Atlanta Journal, which is one of the most hustling of papers north or south, has added fresh laurels by sending Mr. W. A. McDougald, of its staff, to Cuba. Of all the Cuban correspondents Mr. McDougald has alone succeeded in conveying a clear idea of the situation.

There is reason to believe that Mr. Hancock, of Newberne, will not stand up, pound his chest and defiantly bid an investigating committee "come on."

The reports in yesterday's papers of how the insurgents were routed unfortunately bore the Spanish trade mark.

It is pleasant to know that President McKinley will dine President Dole on the first of February. Mr. Dole should at least receive a square meal for his journey thither.

In the gubernatorial contest which is beginning to warm up in Georgia, the least that North Carolinians can do is to bid the Crackers take warning from our awful example.

France kicks up a larger rumpus over one condemned traitor than we do in this country over a thousand who have been fitted with an office or a pension.

All delegates to the Indianapolis monetary convention should note that the Hoosier capital has recently been fitted with a curfew ordinance.

One unlooked for result of a scrap in the Orient would probably be a smashing of prophecies as to what "modern implements of war" can do.

The discussion as to the national marine hospital will probably continue until another epidemic of yellow fever has begun its course.

The reports of rioting in the French Chamber of Deputies do not say that the genial Mr. Samuel L. Clemens was a spectator.

The cotton mill strikers seem disposed to regard their enforced idleness as a Sunday school pic-nic.

It is patent that either Mr. Reed or Mr. Bailey needs to be equipped with a good memory.

RECOVERS LOST ELECTRICITY.

Discovers Currents That Escape Into the Earth.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 21—George F. Durant, local manager, and a corps of Bell Telephone Company employees have made a most important discovery concerning the electricity which escapes into the earth from wires. Mr. Durant said today:

"From experiments we have made and are making we are certain that the current from the street car ground wires remains in the earth and travels underground, and that this force can be used again. We have been experimenting with lamps. We find that a single wire, with the simplest kind of a connection, will suffice to produce light from this earth current. If the wasted current is, say twenty volts at one point and six volts at another, a lamp at the latter point connected by wire with the former will be supplied with a current equal to the difference between the currents at the two points. In the instance cited there would be sufficient current to supply fourteen volts to the lamp. I can see no reason why the current could not be carried through motors and dynamos in the same way. If the actual current as it comes from the earth were not sufficient, it could first be gathered into storage batteries and thus intensified. The current can be handled exactly as if it were generated by a dynamo."

DAZED BY A MAN'S GAZE.

Mrs. Lott Hypnotized by a Purse Grabber's Accomplice.

Mrs. Lizzie Lott, of 188 Garfield place, had what she regards as a very peculiar experience as she was about to enter a dry goods store on Fulton street, Brooklyn, on Thursday afternoon. A man, she says, fixed such a "steady gaze" on her that she was forced to stop suddenly and return it. Then followed a strange sensation, as if the man had hypnotized her. She was so dazed, she says, that she hardly noticed another man, who, grabbing her purse containing $9 from her hand, ran away. It was only when the man with the "steady gaze" also took to flight that Mrs. Lott realized what had taken place. Then she notified a policeman. In the pursuit which followed George Ross, of 28 Monroe street, was arrested as the thief, but the purse was not found on him. He was held for examination.—N. Y. Sun.

CONSUL JAMESON RESIGNS.

Trouble Because His Chief Was Mistaken for Bryan at Mexico.

Puebla, Mexico, Jan. 23—An incident growing out of the visit of William Jennings Bryan, the free silver orator, to this city has caused William S. Jameson, United States Consul here to present his resignation to the Secretary of State. Just before the time set for the arrival of Mr. Bryan in this city Gov. Mucie Martinez notified the proprietor of the principal hotel that the distinguished American was to be the guest of the State, and that no charge for him should be made at the hotel. This hotel man is not acquainted with the faces of Americans, so on the day before the times set for Mr. Bryan's arrival, when United States Consul General Barlow arrived at his hotel, he supposed that the distinguished American was Mr. Bryan. Great attentions were paid Mr. Barlow by the hotel proprietor, and when he departed that evening the tendered compensation was refused. The next day when the real Mr. Bryan arrived the hotel man was astounded, and it is reported that the original mistake caused further complications which were so unpleasant to Consul Jameson that he resigned.

JUDGE DICK MAY WITHDRAW IT.

Butler Protests in Name of Fusion Against Ewart's Appointment.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Owing to unexpected complication, the President decided not to appoint Judge Dick's successor today. Judge Dick, it is said, is rapidly convalescing, and it is possible that his resignation may be withdrawn.

Senator Butler made his first visit to the White House today, and it is understood that the object of his visit was to protest against Ewart's appointment, on the ground that it would defeat Republican-Populist fusion in the approaching State campaign on the "honest election" issue. Judge Ewart expects to see the President Monday.

Judge Douglas says tonight that he is not in the fight and that it will be a fatal mistake if the President does not appoint Senator Pritchard.—Charlotte Observer.

TO PUBLISH THE PENSION ROLL.

Provisions of the Bill Introduced by Senator Cannon.

A bill providing for the publication of the publication of the pension roll was introduced in the Senate today by Mr. Cannon. The bill directs the Secretary of the Interior to publish these lists on or before January 1, 1899, said lists to be in the form of pamphlets, one pamphlet for each state and territory and the District of Columbia. These lists are to be arranged alphabetically, both as regards the names and post office addresses of the pensioners, and other information necessary to fully identify each case. These lists shall be mailed to every newspaper in the United States, each paper to receive the lists relating to the state in which it is published.—Washington Star.

REV. DR. TALMAGE MARRIED.

Mrs. Elenore McCutcheon, of Pittsburg, the Bride.

Pittsburg, Jan. 23.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, the noted divine, of Washington, and Mrs. Elenore McCutcheon Collier, of Alleghany city, were united in marriage today at the McCutcheon residence, No. 47 Irwin avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Robinson, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. The wedding, which came as a great surprise to the many friends of the couple, was on account of a recent death in the family, an extremely quiet affair.

Mrs. Talmage is the daughter of the late James M. McCutcheon, of the big iron firm of Lindsay & McCutcheon. She was the widow of Chas. W. Collier, only son of Judge F. H. Collier. She is 40 years old while her husband is 66. The present Mrs. Talmage is the reverend gentleman's third wife, his second wife having died several years ago.

Will Test It.

Mr. Reed and Mr. Bailey will do what they can with the material available to make a practical experiment in connection with the old query as to what would happen if an irresistible force met an immovable body.—Washington Star.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

GOSPEL OF GOOD ROADS.

A Well Posted Authority Gives Some Figures.

The Telegram has made frequent mention of the necessity for good roads and apropos of that topic the following figures are given by a supervisor of roads for the northern part of New York:

"The produce shipped from this station is transported by railroad, on an average, about 500 miles to the consumers; and it is transported by wagon roads on an average of three miles from the farms to the station. With the present roads it costs the farmers one-half as much to haul the produce the three miles as they pay the railroads to haul it 500 miles.

"With a system of macadam roads the cost of this short haul would be reduced 50 per cent., thus reducing the whole cost of transportation from the farm to the consumer by one-sixth, which would be a saving to the amount each year equal to the interest on from $10 to $30 an acre, according to the crop raised (the larger sum being the saving on the main crops here), either to hold or to sell; by a like amount. These figures may seem startling, but they are none the less correct.

"Within the last thirty years there have been expended on the highways in this country over $1,200 per mile, and, with the exception of a few miles in the town of Canandaigua, they are no better than they were at the beginning of that period; and should the same system be continued for the next thirty years, a like sum would have been expended and the condition of the highways would be just as it is now."

"The few miles referred to in Canandaigua are crushed stone or macadam roads, built at an expense to the town outside of the regular highway tax. Four or five years ago the town bought a stone crusher, and has expended the $2,000 per year allowed by law, under the direction of their very efficient highway commission, in building macadam roads, consisting of a crushed stone road bed about eight feet wide and nearly a foot deep in the centre of a turnpike some twenty-five or thirty feet wide, sloping enough to shed the surface water, but not too steep to drive on any part of it, at an expense of $400 to $700 per mile, the smaller sum in cases where the stone has been contributed and drawn into piles by the neighboring farmers without expense to the town.

"As a result they have in that town ten miles or more of such roads, and so well pleased are they with the improvement that they have had a special act passed by the legislature during the last session empowering the town to vote upon the question of expending $2,000 per year in addition to the $2,000 already allowed by law in building such roads. These roads are just as good in December or March as they are in July or September; they have increased the value of adjoining farms many times the cost of the roads and the subsequent cost of keeping them in good repair will be much less than the cost under the ordinary system of keeping them in poor repair."

Are You "Run Down?"

Until February, 1892, I was a physical wreck and had been for over twenty years. No one can ever know what I suffered from rheumatism and neuralgia in different parts of my body, but principally in my head. I suffered so much with pains in my back that often I would have to lay with bottles of hot water to my back to give me what little relief it would. I suffered with indigestion for years, which gave me often such choking spells that the doctor would have to be summoned in haste. I could not eat a mouthful of meat or solid food of any kind, and the eructation of gas from my stomach was distressing. My system was completely run down. I had no strength and was distressingly nervous. Sometimes I would be unconscious from these nervous spells and would have to have hot baths applied for relief. When I had been in this condition for over twenty years, Mrs. Joe Person visited our town in February, 1892, and persuaded me to try a half-dozed bottles of her Remedy, as she told me she had never known it to fail to restore a broken down system. I knew I would have to try something and thought it might as well be her Remedy as anything, but I had no faith in anything curing me. I bought a half-dozen bottles and when I was on the second I began to feel better and by the time I took the six bottles I WAS WELL. Indigestion was perfectly cured and I can now eat anything I want and it agrees with me. It cured me entirely of neuralgia and I have never had it since. It cured me of hemorrhoids from which I suffered agony—rheumatism, backache, headache, nervousness all cured. When I see any one suffering from anything I ask them why don't they take the Remedy, that half a dozen bottles would cure them. I would not take hundreds of dollars for what it did for me. It restored me to health and now I enjoy life.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

W. B. Taylor, of Taylor Bros., Winston, was in the city yesterday.

The Sample Brown Mercantile Co. have a new advertisement in The Telegram today.

Geo. W. Pritchett, of Pinehurst, was in the city yesterday and returned home last night.

After taking breath a few weeks, building operations are starting up in Greensboro again.

Two handsome dwellings will be built at once by Mr. Charles H. Ireland on Edgworth street.

J. D. Jennings, of Abbeville, S. C., was in the city today. He is agent of the Seaboard at Abbeville.

The little boy of Mr. Thomas Tally, who was burned at Proximity Friday, is reported as doing nicely, we are pleased to state.

Mr. Giles Foushee, of Sanford, came up Saturday in company with J. G. Foushee, of the Durham & Charlotte railway, and spent Sunday here, returning today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Matthews will entertain invited friends at their home on South Spring street, tomorrow night, complimentary to Miss Albright, who is visiting there.

Dr. H. T. Bahnson, of Salem, was in the city today, returning home from Asheboro, where he went to administer to those who were injured in the wreck near there Saturday night.

H. N. Brown, of Hillsboro, is in the city, stopping at The Allen. Mr. Brown will buy tobacco on this market for his factory at Hillboro. He is a brother of Mrs. J. E. Gay, of this city.

The recent improvement in the appearance of the Steam Laundry building is very marked. Mr. Dick is a hustler, his laundry is the best in the State and he deserves increased support.

Arthur Stack, formerly with George Royster, has bought an interest in the firm of Clary & Co., south of depot. He will be glad to have his friends call to see him. The new firm will be Clary & Stack.

Shrier, the exclusive and hustling shoe dealer, has instituted the plan of free shines at his store on South Elm street. He has an elegant and easy chair, and an expert bootblack to wait on his customers.

Mr. Nathan A. Hanner requests us to express, through the columns of The Telegram, his warmest thanks and appreciation of the many kindnesses manifested by his friends and neighbors in the recent illness, suffering and death of his wife.

Maj. W. T. Bundick, of Virginia, arrived in the city on the noon train and will lecture at West Market Street church tonight on the subject of "Intemperance, the Nation's Curse." Maj. Bundick has a wide reputation as a forceful and entertaining speaker. Hear him tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Pastor Gay, of Centenary church, preached a strong sermon last night on the subject of gambling, taking for his text, the words: "Thou shalt not steal." Among other forms of gambling he paid particular attention to the raffling business, and declared that it was on the same principle as the Louisiana State Lottery, which became so odious that the laws of the country drove it out of existence. The truth of this statement cannot be denied, and there is in this declaration alone, much food for thought.

A new and elegant line of embroideries and other things that will interest the ladies is advertised by Johnson & Dorsett in The Telegram today. They advertise in a few words, but their stock is large and complete.

The woodwork on the new West Market Street church was completed today. There is a little painting and finishing touches to be put on, and when the carpets are laid and the seats put in this will be an exceedingly handsome church.

Marriage This Morning.

At the handsome residence of Mr. Will R. Rankin, on West Market St., this morning at 11 o'clock, Mr. H. H. Merrett, of Wilmington, N. C., led to the matrimonial altar Miss Dessie Cline, of Newton, N. C. Dr. J. H. Weaver performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends of the immediate families, and the bride and groom took the 12:15 train, by way of Fayetteville, for a tour through Florida and other Southern States. The groom is the clever and efficient chief clerk in the auditor's office of the Atlantic Coast Line, at Wilmington, and is one of Wilmington's rising young business men. The bride is the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. H. H. Cline, of Newton, and a sister of Mrs. W. R. Rankin, of this city.

Death Saturday Night.

After an illness of about two weeks with pneumonia, Mr. O. J. Pickett died Saturday night at Mrs. Honeycutt's, on Schenck street, where he was boarding. He was a former resident of Durham, and a sister came up to visit him and was with him when he died.

He united with the Presbyterian church on Friday, having been brought under conviction by a sermon he heard Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith preach a few days before he was taken sick. The funeral was conducted by Dr. Smith at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and the remains were carried to Wake county for interment.

To The Monetary Conference.

At a meeting of the representative business men of the city at seven o'clock on Satuarday evening in the National bank, Messrs. J. W. Lindau and Neil Ellington were selected as delegates to the monetary conference to be held in Indianapolis this week. Better selections could hardly have been made and it is gratifying to know that at a conference wherein the business interests of the whole country will be so intimately concerned, Greensboro will be so well represented. Whatever the results of the conference may be it has beyond question a magnificent opportunity. Most of the important towns of the country will be represented.

A New Switchboard.

Manager McAdoo, of the local telephone system, will sign a contract the latter part of this week for a new switchboard. The one now in use can accommodate only one hundred phones and the demand is larger than that. The new one will accommodate two hundred. Either the American or the Western board will be used. It is expected that the change will made about the last of February.

Temperance Lecture This Evening.

Mr. W. T. Bundick, of Virginia, will deliver a temperance lecture at West Market Street church this evening at 7:30. calls your attention to a handsome line of dress skirts which they have reduced from $5 and $6 to $3.50, made of all wool storm serge and full rustle lining. Also handsome novelty goods.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Come and take a good look at our Underwear. Have a nice line of Corset Covers from 12 1-2c for a good cambric waist, and a nice Hamburg trimmed front and back for 25c. Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style. The skirts are in plain and umbrella ruffles, handsomely trimmed and ranging in price from 75c to $1. A nice line of Drawers from 25c to $1.25.
